EXPLANATORY MEMORANDUM

National Health Service, Wales

THE NATIONAL HEALTH SERVICE (TRAVELLING EXPENSES AND REMISSION OF CHARGES) (WALES) REGULATIONS 2007

Summary

These Regulations consolidate the National Health Service (Travelling Expenses and Remission of Charges) Regulations 1988 as amended and increase the capital limit amounts used as the basis for calculating entitlement to the payment of travel expenses and remission of charges under those Regulations. The Regulations take account of the consolidation of much of the NHS legislation in the form of the National Health Service (Wales) Act 2006, which will come into force on 1 March 2007. They also take into account the changes to the NHS charges regime which are contained within the NHS (Free Prescriptions and Charges for Drugs and Appliances) (Wales) Regulations 2007 which are scheduled to come into force on 1 April 2007. The consolidation is as a result of a recommendation made by the Legislation Committee at the time of last year's uprating exercise.

1. This Memorandum is submitted to the Assembly's Business Committee in relation to The National Health Service (Travelling Expenses and Remission of Charges) (Wales) Regulations 2007, in accordance with Standing Order 24.6.
2. A copy of the Instrument is submitted with this Memorandum.

Enabling Power

3. The powers enabling this Instrument to be made are contained in sections 130, 131 and 203 (9) and (10) of the National Health Service (Wales) Act 2006 (formerly sections 83A and 126(4) of the National Health Service Act 1977). Responsibility for issues relating to the contents of these Regulations will be delegated to Minister for Health and Social Services. Under the post-May 2007 arrangements we foresee that this legislation would follow the Negative procedure.

Effect

4. The effect of the legislation is to consolidate the NHS (Travelling Expenses and Remission of Charges) Regulations 1988 and subsequent amendments on 1 April 2007 and to increase the capital limit amounts used as the basis for calculating entitlement to the payment of travel expenses and remission of charges under those Regulations from 9 April 2007. The effect of the consolidation will be that the Regulations will be available in one Statutory Instrument and for the first time available in the Welsh Language in accordance with Assembly policy.

5. The capital limits are changing in Wales as a consequence of the amendments made to the National Assistance (Assessment of Resources and Sums for Personal Requirements) (Amendment) (Wales) Regulations 2007.

Target Implementation

6. It is intended that this Instrument will be made on 28 March 2007 and come into force on 1 April 2007 for the purposes of consolidation and 9 April 2007 for uprating the capital limits. If the intended dates are not met then the recommendation by the Legislation Committee to consolidate will not be implemented, the legislation will remain embodied in numerous sets of Regulations, it will not be available in the Welsh language and patients from Wales will not benefit from the inflationary uplift to the allowances.

Financial Implications

7. The changes brought about by these Regulations are a consequence of the National Assistance (Assessment of Resources and Sums for Personal Requirements) (Amendment) (Wales) Regulations 2007 and will have very little financial impact in Wales. From 1 April there will be no charge for prescriptions in Wales so there will be no further claims under the low income scheme for this purpose. Any increase in costs attributed to the increase in capital limits will be more than offset by the lack of claims for refunds of prescription costs. If the recommendations in paragraph 3 are agreed, any additional costs will be met from within existing budgets (Pharmacy Contract in BEL 255, Drugs Prescribing and Dental Contract in BEL 020, Other Family Health Services in BEL 180 and the Hospital Patients Travel Budget in BEL 297). The Resources Directorate has seen and noted the contents of this submission (JAB/IP2999).

Regulatory Appraisal

8. A Regulatory Appraisal has been carried out in relation to this Instrument and is attached.

Consultation

With Stakeholders

9. It was not considered necessary to consult with stakeholders on these Regulations, because this is a consolidation of existing Regulations and a consequential technical change. Consolidating the Regulations will make them more user friendly and the uprating of the capital limits is an annual rise based on inflationary rates, which Local Health Boards and NHS Trusts are aware of. The Department of Health has been informed of the proposed changes.

With Subject Committee

10. These Regulations were notified to the Health and Social Services Committee, via the list of forthcoming legislation, on 15 June 2006 (HSS(2)-10-06 (p.2a), item no: HSS 24(06)) and have remained on the list ever since. The Regulations were identified for detailed scrutiny and are scheduled to be scrutinised on 1 March 2007.

Recommended Procedure

11. Subject to the views of the Business Committee, I recommend that these Regulations proceed to Plenary under the Standard procedure, to give Members an opportunity to debate them.

Compliance

12. The proposed legislation will (as far as is applicable):

- have due regard to the principle of equality of opportunity for all people (Government of Wales Act 1998 section 120);
- be compatible with the Assembly's scheme for sustainable development (section 121);
- be compatible with Community law (section 106);
- be compatible with the Assembly's human rights legislation (section 107); and
- be compatible with any international obligations binding the UK Government and the Assembly (section 108).

13. The information in this Memorandum has been cleared with the Legal Services Department.

REGULATORY APPRAISAL

National Health Service, Wales

The National Health Service (travelling expenses and remission of charges) (Wales) Regulations 2007

Purpose and intended effect of the measure

1. These Regulations consolidate the amendments made to the NHS (Travel Expenses and Remission of Charges) Regulations 1988. In order to avoid an immediate amendment from 9 April 2007, they also increase the capital limit amounts used as the basis for calculating entitlement to the payment of travel expenses and the remission of charges under those Regulations.

2. The National Assistance (Assessment of Resources and Sums for Personal Requirements) (Amendment) (Wales) Regulations 2007 introduce a number of changes including an increase on capital limits which have a bearing on calculations made under these consolidated Regulations. The National Assistance (Assessment of Resources and Sums for Personal Requirements) (Amendment) (Wales) Regulations 2007 are due to be debated in Plenary on 27 March and come into force on 9 April 2007.

3. The consolidation is taking place as a result of a recommendation made by the Legislation Committee at the time of last years' up rating amendment.

Risk Assessment

4. If these Regulations are not made the NHS (Travel Expenses and Remission of Charges) Regulations 1988 will continue to be confusing, difficult to use and only available in English. This is contrary to the Assembly's policy of making legislation in bilingual format, whenever practically possible. In addition, the NHS Business Services Authority will continue to process Welsh claims based on last year's capital limits, meaning that claimants won't benefit from the proposed uplift.

Options

Option 1: Do Nothing

5. In terms of the consolidation, The NHS (Travel Expenses and Remission of Charges) Regulations 1988 would still have several amendments, making them difficult to understand and the Regulations would only be available in English. For the amendment to the capital limit amounts, the NHS Business Services Authority would continue to administer the system according to last year's Regulations, meaning that claimants wouldn't benefit from the inflationary uplift to the allowances.

Option 2: Make the Legislation

6. Consolidating and translating the legislation and increasing the capital limit amounts used as the basis for calculating entitlement to the payment of travel expenses and the remission of charges would bring benefits in terms of the user-friendliness of the Regulations. The Regulations would also be available bilingually for the first time and the annual increase in capital limit amounts would benefit patients in Wales.

Benefits

7. Consolidating and translating these Regulations will make them more user-friendly. The increase of capital limit allowances will mean that claimants receive continuity of entitlement to the scheme if they are in receipt of the relevant benefits, and are treated equally if they're not.

Costs

8. The changes brought about by these Regulations are a consequence of the National Assistance (Assessment of Resources and Sums for Personal Requirements) (Amendment) (Wales) Regulations 2007 and will have very little financial impact in Wales. From 1 April there will be no charge for prescriptions in Wales so there will be no further claims under the low income scheme for this purpose. Any increase in costs attributed to the increase in capital limits will be more than offset by the lack of claims for refunds of prescription costs. If the recommendations in paragraph 3 are agreed, any additional costs will be met from within existing budgets (Pharmacy Contract in BEL 255, Drugs Prescribing and Dental Contract in BEL 020, Other Family Health Services in BEL 180 and the Hospital Patients Travel Budget in BEL 297). The Resources Directorate has seen and noted the contents of this submission (JAB/IP2999).

With stakeholders

9. It was not considered necessary to consult with stakeholders on these Regulations, because this is a consolidation of existing Regulations and a consequential technical change. Consolidating the Regulations will make them more user friendly and the uprating of the capital limits is an annual rise based on inflationary rates, which Local Health Boards and NHS Trusts are aware of. The Regulations were identified for detailed scrutiny and are scheduled to be scrutinised on 1 March 2007.

Review

10. The impact of the Regulations will be monitored and reviewed in the usual way through the collection of claims data by the NHS Business Services Authority

Regulations 2007

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Regulations)

These Regulations consolidate, with amendments, the provisions of the National Health Service (Travelling Expenses and Remission of Charges) Regulations 1988 (“the 1988 Regulations”). The 1988 Regulations and all subsequent amendments are repealed in relation to Wales in accordance with regulation 18 and Schedule 2.

The Regulations make provision so that people who are either in receipt of certain state benefits or who are on a low income are able to obtain the remission and repayment of certain charges, which would otherwise be payable under the National Health Service (Wales) Act 2006, and the payment of travelling expenses incurred in obtaining certain NHS services (NHS travelling expenses). Regulation 3 defines NHS travelling expenses and NHS foreign travelling expenses. Regulation 4 identifies the relevant NHS charges.

The principal changes in relation to the remission and payment of NHS charges from the 1988 Regulations are as follows: following the abolition of charges in respect of drugs and appliances supplied to patients registered with General Practitioners in Wales, or registered with General Practitioners in England but holding a valid entitlement card in accordance with the National Health Service (Free Prescriptions and Charges for Drugs and Appliances) (Wales) Regulations 2007, these Regulations make no provision for the remission or payment of charges for the supply of appliances such as wigs, fabric supports, surgical brassieres and elastic hosiery, as the supply of such items by Local Health Boards and NHS Trusts in Wales are covered by those Regulations.

Part 2 of these Regulations contains provision relating to entitlement. Regulation 5 governs entitlement to payment in full of travelling expenses and to the full remission of certain NHS charges. Regulation 6 makes provision for partial payment and remission in part. Persons who are in receipt of certain state benefits or who are entitled to certain tax credits are not required to make a claim for entitlement under these Regulations on the basis that their income and capital resources will already have been assessed for the purposes of their entitlement to the benefit or tax credit. Other persons who wish to claim entitlement under these Regulations must make a claim in accordance with the provisions of regulation 7. Regulation 8 makes provision for notices of entitlement to be issued to successful claimants.

Part 3 contains provision about payment and repayment. Regulation 9 makes provision for the payment of NHS travelling expenses. Once entitlement is established, the amount due is calculated and paid either by the provider of the services or by the health service body which made the arrangements for the services. Regulations 10 and 11 contain provision relating to repayment in any case where a person who is entitled to the payment of travelling expenses or to the remission of a charge has in fact incurred the expenses or paid the charge. Regulation 12 enables a provider of services who has made a payment in respect of certain travelling expenses to be repaid in cases where the services were provided under an agreement with another body. Regulation 13 deals with the payment and repayment of NHS foreign travelling expenses.

Parts 4 and Schedule 1 concern the method of determining the entitlement of certain persons who are not automatically entitled to receive remission and payment because they are in receipt of certain state benefits or certain tax credits. A calculation is made of the claimant's (and where relevant, the claimant's family's) income, capital and requirements. This calculation is made by applying modified provisions of the Income Support (General) Regulations 1987 ("the 1987 Regulations") as set out in Schedule 1. The reason for the disapplication, in regulation 14(5)(c), of the State Pension Credit (Consequential, Transitional and Miscellaneous Provisions) Regulations 2002 ("the 2002 Regulations"), is that by virtue of the 2002 Regulations people over the age of 60 are no longer entitled to receive income support and are excluded from the 1987 Regulations. In order to preserve the position of such claimants in relation to the payment of NHS travelling expenses and the remission of certain

NHS charges, the amendments made to the 1987 Regulations by the 2002 Regulations are disapplied.

These Regulations also contain a number of changes from the 1988 Regulations which are minor or consequential drafting amendments and which take account of the consolidation of much of the legislation relating to the National Health Service, including the National Health Service Act 1977, in the National Health Service (Wales) Act 2006.

Where the National Assembly for Wales determines, on a claim made under regulation 7 (claims to entitlement), that the claimant and any member of his or her family are entitled to any remission of an NHS charge or any payment in respect of NHS travelling expenses, it must issue a notice of entitlement to the claimant.

(1) Where a person is entitled to full remission of an NHS charge and payment in full of NHS travelling expenses because he or she is a member of a family described in regulation 5(1)(e) (tax credit families), the National Assembly for Wales must issue a notice of entitlement to that family and in such a case the notice will apply to all members of that family.

(10) A claimant who is issued with a notice of entitlement to the payment in part of NHS travelling expenses or the remission in part of an NHS charge for relevant dental services may make a further claim in accordance with regulation 7 at any time during the life of the notice if he or she considers that by reason of a change in his or her financial circumstances, or those of any member of his or her family, the amounts stated on the notice of entitlement as referred to in paragraph 3(b) should be reduced.

(11) A claimant to whom a notice of entitlement has been issued under this regulation must return it to the National Assembly for Wales in any case where his or her claim is subsequently found to have been based on a false representation.

- (a) references to income support were to the remission of NHS charges and the payment of NHS travelling expenses,
