Questions to the First Minister

Budgetary Priorities

11. Darren Millar: Will the First Minister make a statement on his budgetary priorities for the period remaining before dissolution. OAQ(3)3509(FM)

The First Minister (Carwyn Jones): We will continue to pursue our 'One Wales' priorities until the Assembly election.

Health Services in Torfaen

12. Lynne Neagle: Will the First Minister make a statement on the provision of health services in Torfaen. OAQ(3)3511(FM)

The First Minister: The Welsh Assembly Government is committed to the development of safe, integrated and sustainable healthcare services in Torfaen, which meet the health care needs of our citizens as close to their homes as possible, without distraction by competition and complicated commissioning processes.

Advocacy Services

13. Mark Isherwood: Will the First Minister make a statement on advocacy services in Wales. OAQ(3)3508(FM)

The First Minister: We are committed to making the voice of individuals heard in matters and decisions that affect them. This is especially true of vulnerable individuals who benefit from the services of advocacy to support them and we have structures and processes in place to enable this to happen.

Promote Entrepreneurs

14. David Melding: What has the Welsh Assembly Government done to promote entrepreneurs in Wales. OAQ(3)3514(FM)

The First Minister: Entrepreneurship is a key priority for us, vital in developing a strong economy and crucial for our future prosperity. We wish to work with our successful entrepreneurs to encourage start-up creation and are currently in the process of recruiting a network of business entrepreneurship champions to promote Welsh entrepreneurship.
