Title: Budget Proposals for 2003-04

CONSIDERATION OF THE DRAFT BUDGET FOR 2003-2004

Purpose

1. To explain the health and social services implications of the draft Budget for 2003-2004 as tabled by the Minister for Finance, Local Government and the Communities and presented to Plenary on 15 October 2002.
2. Standing Order 19 provides that each Assembly Minister who is a member of a subject committee shall seek its views on the draft Budget and convey them to the Minister for Finance, Local Government and the Communities.

Recommendation

3. That the Committee gives me its comments on the draft Budget.

Background

4. The budget round was launched in May with a paper from the Minister for Finance, Local Government and the Communities. The Committee set out its priorities for the Budget Planning Round in a letter from Kirsty Williams to me of 9 July 2002(Annex 1).
5. The Finance Minister announced the Partnership Government's draft Budget to Plenary on 15 October. On 16 October, I announced my spending proposals for health and social services in the light of the planned increases announced by the Finance Minister. This included the funding in the draft Budget tables and an announcement of

- a £20 million package of EYF in 2002-03 (see paragraph 10)
- additional capital investment and public funding for community hospital replacement schemes in a number of locations.

I have subsequently, on 17 October, announced capital investment at West Wales General Hospital, Carmarthen for the Accident and Emergency Department and refurbishment of theatres. The final Budget will be laid on 29 October, followed by Plenary debate and vote on 6 November. At that point, additional capital will be included in the LHB/Trust capital BEL funding these and other schemes, I shall be announcing. I will need the Chair to write to me confirming the Committee's views on the draft Budget by 25 October.

6. I welcome the Finance Minister's announcement that Derek Wanless has agreed to review Health and Social Care in Wales and report to the Welsh Assembly Government. His report will assist us to set the agenda for the NHS and its further modernisation and reform in Wales.

Committee priorities

7. I am delighted that the Budget for next year means that we will be able to meet the key priorities of this Committee as set out in Kirsty Williams' letter to me of 9 July. I am particularly pleased that we shall be able to progress so many capital schemes – with a significantly enhanced investment programme in the final Budget tables in addition to the 2002-03 EYF. There is a major increase in training and education, including three new clinical education schemes, and we are driving forward on health inequalities through direct funding for LHBs for implementing the Townsend formula and sustaining the Health Inequalities Fund at the current year level. I have delivered additional funding for these; and for the ambulance service - with £2.5 million additional revenue. On delayed transfers in care there is £12.4 million next year and £1.5 million over 2004-05 and 2005-06 for the Bryn y Neuadd resettlement programme.

Financial Implications

8. As set out in the draft Budget tables, and below. NOTE – There has been a technical change – NHS provision formally classed as Annually Managed Expenditure - (LHB and Trust (Capital Charge, LHB depreciation & provisions BEL) is now classified as DEL). EYF tables will be published in due course.

For health, this paper focuses on spending plan figures for 2003-04 only. The Finance Minister made clear in her speech on the draft budget that for 2004-05 and 2005-06 she had provided relatively modest uplifts for health budgets. There is significant additional funding for health in these two years but it is being held in the Assembly's Reserve pending the Derek Wanless Review of Health and Social Care.

Funding for health and social services - £4,158.2 million

Increases over baselines of £ 110 million.

9. This draft Budget represents substantial increases, which will enable us to make significant further progress in implementing our agreed priorities. The following commentary explains where new money will be allocated to health and social services BELs, as a result of the BPR and where there have also been changes as a result of reviewing spending priorities within baselines.

Health Funding

10. The draft Budget provides:

- Total planned Health Budget (DEL Provision) £3,825.1 million
- Increase Over Baselines (DEL Provision) £88.0 million
- Year on Year Cash increase £332.9 million (9.29%)
- End Year Flexibility (EYF) - As I announced on 16 October, I have agreed with the Finance Minister an additional £20 million package of EYF funding for 2002-03. This will cover £5 million to the NHS to ease Winter Pressures and improve waiting times; £13 million for equipment and a small-scale capital spending investment package in- year and £2 million for social services to tackle delayed transfers in care.
- I have already announced that, subject to business case approval, there will be capital funding over and above the funding in the draft Budget tables for:
 - An £8 million scheme, including land acquisition for new services in Tenby and South Pembrokeshire;
 - Public funding for the new community hospital for Ebbw Vale/Blaenau Gwent;
 - Public funding for the new community hospital in Merthyr Tydfil;
 - Public funding for the redevelopment of community health care services in Cynon Valley.

11. The budget increases for health (as apportioned between budgets) will provide:

BEL 0020 – LHBs and Trusts and Central Budgets – Revenue Expenditure

12. These budgets cover:

Local Health Board revenue funding for unified budgets covering Hospital, Community and Family Health Services (HCHS) discretionary and protected allocation/drugs prescribing/cash limited General Medical Services (GMS); Assembly support for specialist registrars and training grades; primary care funding, including prescription pricing and transitional support for mental illness hospital closure programme; Information Management and Technology; NHS Direct;

revenue costs (SIFT) of clinical education.

Total Budget provision - £3,262.3 million

Increase of £122.1 million

13. These budgets provide:

- A £205 million increase for Local Health Boards in their revenue allocations next year to fund hospital services and primary health care. This means a 9.4/5.9/6.0 per cent increase on discretionary hospital and community health services, drugs prescribing (increase of 9.0/9.0/9.0 per cent on net funding) and cash-limited General Medical Services (increase of 2.5/2.5/2.5 per cent). This funding will enable further progress to improve our key health services, including cancer, coronary heart disease and mental health. Funding in future years will be subject to our consideration of the Wanless review and to future Budget Planning Rounds. On top of this there is also:
- £44 million for the Director's Performance and Financial Management Fund, including money towards the new consultants' contract. This will be augmented by a claw-back of 1 per cent of LHB's uplifts;
- An extra £1.3 million for Innovations in Care;
- An extra £7 million for resource accounting issues;
- An extra £3.2 million for Investment in IM&T;
- An extra £2.5 million for Emergency Ambulances;
- An extra £2 million for the expansion of NHS Direct;
- £1 million for low vision aids;
- Funding towards the implementation of the Townsend Formulae across the LHB allocation (£4.1 million);

15. The baseline has reduced in the draft Budget tables to sustain the LHB allocation increases and assist with the other revenue developments (BEL 0020 and BEL 0140). However, this is more than offset by £20 million EYF available in 2002-03 and the additional capital package I have agreed with the Finance Minister for which there will be additional capital funding in the final Budget tables. The Finance Minister announced that she will underwrite a further £20 million for the Local Health Boards (see paragraph 20).

Although this is a lower increase than originally originally planned for, expenditure on this demand-led budget will be met, including implementing the GP contract and associated developments in primary care. BUDGET PLANNING PRIORITIES 2003 – 2004

At our committee meeting on 3 July you set out your budget priorities for the coming year and invited the Committee's comments. I am writing to confirm the Committee's recommendations.

The Committee supports the priorities you had identified. It endorsed the continuing commitment to implementing the National Service Frameworks (NSF) for coronary heart disease, cancer and mental health and welcomed the development of an NSF for diabetes.

The Committee also agreed that the following should be given priority for funding:

- the capital programme, including equipment;

- staff recruitment and retention programmes and education and training;
- measures to address health inequalities;
- measures to tackle delayed transfer of care;
- the completion of the resettlement programme for people with learning disabilities; and
- improvements to the ambulance service.
