Gwybodaeth Ychwanegol gan NASUWT ar bresenoldeb ac ymddygiad Additional Information from NASUWT on attendance and behaviour

- NUT Cymru say that some schools refuse to admit pupils with behavioural difficulties even if they reside within the catchment area. How common an occurrence is this?

The NASUWT does not have an evidence base to draw on in support of this view, but I have no doubt that the data driven, high-stakes accountability regime that is being visited on schools across Wales will lead to an increased reluctance by schools to accept pupils who could adversely affect their standing when it comes banding, the outcome of an Estyn inspections or local authority reviews.

- Have schools placed an increased emphasis on attendance since its inclusion within the school banding data?

Possibly, but this would not provide argument to support the banding system.

- The Welsh Government is currently consulting on proposals for the introduction of fixed penalty notices to address the issue of persistent unauthorised absence from school. What are your views on this approach?

The NASUWT acknowledges that penalty notices could provide a means of improving levels of unauthorised absences but maintains that the current proposals are fundamentally flawed as they do not provide for a consistent approach across Wales. The NASUWT believes that the proposals must be impact-assessed against equalities legislation to minimise the risk of litigation.

- Members of the NAHT Cymru/ASCL report that the pupil deprivation grant and the school effectiveness grant have been a particularly important contributor to increased attendance rates. Should there be more direction on spending such grants on ways which can improve attendance and behaviour?

The NASUWT is unaware of the evidence base that the NAHT and ASCL are relying on to make this statement. However, the NASUWT does not oppose the earmarking of grants for specific purposes as long there is no expectation that initiatives continue, if the grant is subsequently withdrawn.

- Has the delay in implementing the recommendations of the 2008 National Behaviour and Attendance Review had an impact on the work of your members?

The NASUWT is not aware of any evidence to support this view either way.

- What is the priority issue that the Welsh Government needs to take forward to improve the attendance and behaviour of pupils?

The NASUWT believes that the Welsh Government need to move away from the high stakes accountability regime that, indirectly and inadvertently, brands pupils as failures, if they fail to achieve an A* to C grade at GCSE.

Success at all levels should be celebrated, and achievement should be relative to the aspirations and ability of the pupil, rather than government diktat.

- In your view, is there a link between food consumed/not consumed and behaviour, and what can schools do about it?

Apart from the obvious (if a child is hungry then they may well be badly behaved, withdrawn and not engaged in learning and the established links between certain foods and hyper-activity), the NASUWT would not presume to comment further on any such links. The NASUWT maintains that this is more a parenting issue rather than a matter that can be resolved at school level. Schools can try to encourage 'healthy eating' and look carefully at the food provided and available in schools, but the NASUWT believes any restrictions on food consumption would have to be measured against the risk of litigation and the principles of fairness and equality.

Atebion i gwestiynau ychwanegol gan y Pwyllgor – Arwyn Thomas, Cyngor Sir Ceredigion

Answers to additional questions by the Committee – Arwyn Thomas, Ceredigion County Council

1. Beth yw'r prif heriau y mae Ceredigion yn eu hwynebu wrth ddarparu addysg i ddisgyblion sy'n Derbyn Addysg Heblaw yn yr Ysgol?

What are the main challenges that Ceredigion faces in delivering provision for pupils Educated Otherwise than in School?

- Cynaliadwyedd hir dymor y Cwricwlwm Amgen Lleol ôl ENGAGE;
- Mae Strategaeth Cynnal Ymddygiad Ceredigion yn cael ei seilio ar adnabyddiaeth gynnar o blant a chyd gynllunio gyda ysgolion er mwyn creu pecynnau addas ar ei gyfer yn Nghyfnod Allweddol 4. Mae diffyg cynllunio o'r fath yn gosod pwysau ar adnoddau lleol yng Ngheredigion heb gynllunio addas ar gyfer y disgyblion unigol.
- Yr angen i ddirprwyo 85% i'r ysgolion
- Long-term sustainability of the Local Alternative Curriculum after ENGAGE;
- Ceredigion's Behavioural Support Strategy is based on early recognition of children's needs and co-ordinating with schools in order to create appropriate packages for Key Stage 4. Ceredigion receives many children in care from other counties who have complex educational and social needs late in year 11, with many of them not having been in mainstream education for many years. Lack of planning such as this places pressure on local resource in Ceredigion, with no appropriate planning for individual pupils.
- The need to delegate 85% to schools.

2. Pa gymorth y mae eich awdurdod lleol yn ei ddarparu i sicrhau bod athrawon yn cael yr hyfforddiant cywir i reoli ymddygiad disgyblion yn effeithiol?

What support does your local authority provide to ensure teachers have the right training to effectively manage pupil behaviour?

Mae Gwasanaeth Cynnal Ymddygiad Ceredigion yn cynnig ystod o raglenni hyfforddiant ar reoli ymddygiad

- Webster Stratton – disgyblion cyn ysgol a Chyfnod Sylfaen
- Disgyblaeth Gadarnhaol – Ysgol Gyfan – Cynradd ac uwchradd
- Disgyblion heriol: Mae'r Sir bellach wedi datblygu strategaeth i ymdrin â disgyblion mwyaf heriol gan gynnwys y defnydd o ymyrraeth gorfforol – Team Teach. Mae hyn yn gynllun 3 blynedd i sicrhau bod bob ysgol yn cael ei hyfforddi a'u diweddarau fel rhan o raglen strwythedig.

One of the strengths of the Pupil Referral Unit according to the latest inspection was the unit's ability to liaise effectively with many partners in order to support the most vulnerable pupils.

The Behavioural Support Team and the PRU have developed very positive relationships with external agencies to support children and young people who attend the PRU and who are supported by the Behavioural Support Unit. In terms of the PRU, many of the children and families live in difficult circumstances. The PRU gives priority to the importance of multiagency work with every agency, including Social Services, the police, and school nurses, in order to support vulnerable pupils and families.

There is effective use of specialist professional agencies that provide guidance to staff and pupils. Good links and support from these agencies ensure that the information and guidance provided is excellent. The agencies include:

- Social Services – the looked-after children Assessment Team
- The Disabled Children Team
- The Youth Offending Team
- SUDDS – Substance Abuse;
- Primary Mental Health Service;
- Children and Adolescence Mental Health Services [CAMHS]
- Educational Psychology Service
- Counselling in Schools – Area 43;
- Nurse Service in Schools;
- CAMHS (Mental Health)
- Educational Inclusion Service (Attendance)
- Youth Service

Please tick the box that best describes you as a respondent

☐ Parent/carer

☒ Local authority (LA)

☐ Police force

☐ Charity/voluntary organisation

☐ Headteacher/school

☐ Other (please specify in box below)

Please specify:

Question 1 – Is the role of the LA in issuing penalty notices clearly defined?

Agree	<input type="checkbox"/>	Disagree	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	Neither agree nor disagree	<input type="checkbox"/>
--------------	--------------------------	-----------------	-------------------------------------	-----------------------------------	--------------------------

It is not totally clear whether the LA is issuing any notices itself or is solely responsible for overseeing the process. Does 'accredited persons' refer to education officers?

Question 2 – Are the examples set out in the consultation for issuing a penalty notice for regular non-attendance at school suitably clear?

Agree	<input type="checkbox"/>	Disagree	<input type="checkbox"/>	Neither agree nor disagree	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>
--------------	--------------------------	-----------------	--------------------------	-----------------------------------	-------------------------------------

In the main, the examples are clear.

We are not sure, however, if it is necessary to specify 85% as the threshold to issue penalty notices. We would rather leave the decision to the judgement of the education officer in discussion with his/her line manager as they will be aware of any extenuating circumstances that might be affecting the case and then decide on the most appropriate course of action.

We suggest that Year 11 unauthorised attendance is a problem, particularly after the autumn term, and so should be specifically included in the list under point 26.

Question 3 – Do you agree that penalty notices should be an additional option for tackling regular non-attendance at school among other measures for use by LAs?

Agree	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	Disagree	<input type="checkbox"/>	Neither agree nor disagree	<input type="checkbox"/>
--------------	-------------------------------------	-----------------	--------------------------	-----------------------------------	--------------------------

We agree that penalty notices should be used as an additional tool in addressing non-attendance but we think that it should be left to the discretion of LA officers as and when to use them.

Question 4 – Are the proposals for the content of the local code of conduct (paragraph 31) sufficient?

Agree	<input type="checkbox"/>	Disagree	<input type="checkbox"/>	Neither agree nor disagree	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>
--------------	--------------------------	-----------------	--------------------------	-----------------------------------	-------------------------------------

We agree that a local code of conduct is important in ensuring that all partner agencies understand how the process works. We agree with the final 3 bullet points under 31.

Bullet point 1 would not be necessary if the LA has sole control of the fixed penalty system as part on its overall attendance strategy.

Question 5 – Do you agree with proposed level of fines (£60 increasing to £120 if not paid within 28 days)?

Agree	<input checked="checked" type="checkbox"/>	Disagree	<input type="checkbox"/>	Neither agree nor disagree	<input type="checkbox"/>
--------------	--	-----------------	--------------------------	-----------------------------------	--------------------------

We agree that these are appropriate as long as due consideration is given to the family's circumstances. It should, therefore, be emphasised that financial punishments should not be used in cases where this might lead to increased hardship for the children of the family. It is assumed that education officers would use their professional judgement as to the appropriateness of imposing any financial penalty on a family.

Question 6 – We have asked a number of specific questions. If you have any related issues which we have not specifically addressed, please use this space to report them.

Please enter here:

We do not agree that the power to issue notices should be given to headteachers and the police. We feel that it should be left to the LA to operate this as part of a comprehensive attendance strategy.. At the moment only the LA has the power to bring prosecutions. Penalty notices would be used as appropriate in casework, and we feel that it might potentially confuse the matter if headteachers had the right to intervene by issuing a fixed penalty notice. Once a referral is accepted from the school for intensive casework, then the onus is on the education officer to decide on the appropriate course of action.

Naturally headteachers can discuss the appropriateness of a fixed term penalty in their discussions of attendances cases with education officers, particular in a case here they have refused a request for holiday and the parents have still taken their child away. However, it should be left to the discretion of the LA to decide whether a fixed penalty notice is appropriate in a particular case.

Case examples :

– Refusal of school to take a child with behavioural difficulties (Nov 2012)

14 year old moved back into area with mother major family disruptions causing a lot of emotional distress coupled with the fact that this yp has been diagnosed with ODD and ADHD. Mum attempted to get him back on the school role that he had previously attended – admission was denied as he had known behavioural difficulties. Child was given a place at a school that was not his catchment school this case also highlighted the confusion various professionals have as to who makes referrals to CAMHS for assessments.

– Multi discipl failure(July 2012)

YP out of education for 12 months. There had been behavioural issues in school and he had been excluded school refused to take him back. YP had also been in trouble with the police and was waiting for a court appearance. During the 12 months that this yp had been without an education placement there had been no work sent home and no alternative placement sought. Neither education nor the YOT had ensured that procedures had been followed that would have ensured that this yp had received appropriate education for 12 months – only resolved when our office became involved – return to mainstream school failed

Child with behavioural difficulties was placed in an assessment unit following temporary exclusion where he did well. Following assessment yp returned to mainstream school where the placement broke down rapidly and a request was made for the yp to return to assessment centre. School was ill-equipped to meet the needs of the child whereas the trained staff at the assessment centre were trained to manage behaviour

- no provision in county

Looked after child placed out of county had been excluded and was not receiving any tuition. Local authority advised they had no specialised provision for children with behavioural difficulties in county. Yp had been placed without consultation with receiving authority and was receiving minimum amount of home tuition – 10 hours per week.

- no placement identified

Yp been without an education placement for 12 months numerous exclusions for behaviour appropriate placement not been identified no diagnosis being the justification child received minimal education in isolation of any peers for 12 months. This case highlighted the failure of education and health to liaise appropriately. We identified that YP had been referred for ASD assessment but that there is a 5 year waiting list.

- lack of intervention from LA(October 2012)

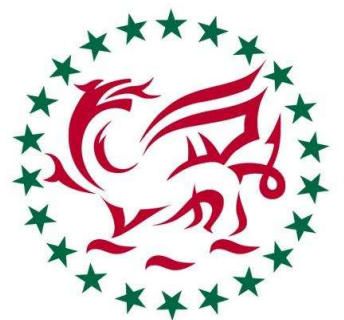

Child receiving exclusions for behaviour school struggle to manage and aware that additional intervention from external agencies required Local authority reluctant to provide any additional support until school could evidence that all avenues had been exhausted. School aware that they did not have the necessary resources to support. Contact with local authority confirmed to the office that additional support would not be forthcoming until school had exhausted the process. This case also highlighted that ed psych intervention is not always forthcoming as children are put on a waiting list in order of priority due to resources.

This case also highlighted the difficulties in supporting parents and child – mum was intimidated by the head and meetings with the school were difficult parent in agreement that child has issues but was frustrated at a process driven mechanism for support rather than a needs led mechanism

Inquiry into Attendance and Behaviour

March 2013

WLGA • CLILC

INTRODUCTION

1. The Welsh Local Government Association (WLGA) represents the 22 local authorities in Wales, and the three national park authorities, the three fire and rescue authorities, and four police authorities are associate members.
2. It seeks to provide representation to local authorities within an emerging policy framework that satisfies the key priorities of our members and delivers a broad range of services that add value to Welsh Local Government and the communities they serve.
3. The WLGA welcomes the opportunity to provide written evidence to the Children and Young People Committee as part of the inquiry into attendance and behaviour. The WLGA were part of the National Behaviour and Attendance Review (NBAR) in 2008 chaired by Professor Ken Reid and have continued to work with local authorities and the Welsh Government supporting the development and implementation of the recommendations contained in the Review report.
4. Local authorities have a statutory duty to secure, promote and improve education services for local communities; they also have a statutory duty to promote social inclusion and well-being. These duties are linked in so far as they place a clear responsibility on local authorities to ensure that all children and young people have access to, and support to engage with education. This is at the heart of the work that local authorities undertake in relation to attendance at schools, and the behaviour of children and young whilst they are attending school.
5. In February 2011 the Minister for Education and Skills launched his 20 actions to improve standards in school across Wales. Attendance and behaviour were highlighted in these actions as an area requiring development in order to support standards. Local government fully support these actions and the three key priorities (literacy, numeracy and narrowing the gap) which play a key role in addressing issues of attendance and behaviour. Local authorities are now working with Welsh Government to execute the actions in the national implementation plan for education 3 – 16; Improving Schools. The implementation plan has attendance and behaviour as a key strand.
6. Evidence shows that since 2005/2006 there has been an improvement in the number of children and young people who are absent from schools (for authorised and unauthorised reasons) in both the primary and secondary sector. There is also evidence from Estyn inspections that up to one third of secondary schools have been told in inspection reports that attendance is not good enough. The majority of absences from schools were authorised and short-term, lasting only a few days, with over 50% of those being due to ill health. There is however, a significant core of absentees who are missing over 25 school days per year. Recently released figures show that the numbers of permanent exclusions from school are also decreasing. There has been a slight increase in the number of fixed term exclusions, with the main reasons cited for these temporary exclusions being associated with violence and assaults. According to Estyn inspection reports, however, behaviour is good in most secondary and primary schools.

7. The statistical and anecdotal evidence shows us that where there are issues with attendance and behaviour it is often in schools located in areas of high deprivation. This strong association between poverty and attendance at schools is demonstrated through the data which shows that schools with higher rates of pupils in receipt of free school meals also have higher rates of absenteeism. Schools that are in the independent sector have some of the lowest rates of absence in Wales. Local authorities in Wales that have areas of high deprivation are the authorities that have the greatest proportion of children and young people who are regular non-attendeess; this creates a particular challenge for local authorities in these areas.
8. There is clearly a relationship between absenteeism and deprivation and evidence also shows us that there is a close link between deprivation and levels of attainment. In addition to the data, it is common sense to assume that if a child or young person is not in school, or is not behaving in a way that is conducive to learning, then this will have a detrimental impact on the education they receive and so their ability to perform well in exams and assessment. Local authorities in Wales understand this complex relationship and are linking the work they are doing on school improvement and the work they are undertaking to tackling attendance and behaviour issues. The interdependencies of these issues are complex but are they key to breaking the cycle of poverty and poor attainment.
9. Local authorities in Wales have created four regional school improvement services which are committed to improving performance in all schools. By working in collaboration local authorities are better able to support and challenge schools to improve performance. These regional services will be working closing with schools and local authorities to address the impact of attendance and behaviour issues on attainment. Local authorities particularly welcome the recent announcement by the Welsh Government of funding over the next two years, for the four regions to support the use of attendance data. This additional support for local authorities will ensure that all authorities are utilising data on attendance effectively. Accurate, timely and relevant data is essential for local authorities to plan effect support for schools and individuals when addressing the issues associated with poor attendance and behaviour. The inclusion of data on attendance in the Welsh Government's school banding calculation has provided a focus for the work on attendance and has improved access to accurate attendance data (reported in a consistent and timely manner).

10. In addition to the links with school improvement and attainment, local authorities are also targeting support at the underlying issues that may be a factor for children and young people who are experiencing difficulties with attendance at school and behavioural issues. Children and young people who are experiencing challenging circumstances such as caring responsibilities, bullying at school, disengagement with the education system or wider family issues will need different levels of support in order to re-engage with education. Having a clear understanding of why a child or young person is not attending school or is experiencing behavioural problems is vital for the correct support to be put in place. In many areas this means support for all the family. This work is being supported in local authorities through the Families First programme, through youth support services and youth work, and in some cases through engagement with social services.
11. Local government is currently working with Welsh Government colleagues to ensure that there is a joined-up approach to engaging with these children and young people through early identification of those who are in danger of becoming disengaged. There are currently trials underway in local authorities, supported by Welsh Government, to pilot effective strategies for addressing issues of disengagement of, in particular young people so they are less at risk of becoming NEET (not in education, employment and training.)
12. The primary concern of local authorities in Wales is to support children and young people to enable them to fulfil their potential. Positive engagement with the education system is essential for children and young people to achieve this. For those children and young people who are living in poverty, education is a key factor in ensuring that as they move through their lives they are able to break the cycle of poverty for themselves and for their children. For other children and young people it may be a matter of providing support through a challenging period in their lives. Whatever the reasons, tackling attendance and behaviour is a key priority for local government as part of the overall commitment to improving the education system in Wales.

Ymchwiliad y Pwyllgor Plant y Phobl Ifanc i Bresenoldeb ac Ymddygiad: Tystiolaeth ychwanegol gan UCAC

- Mae NUT Cymru yn dweud bod rhai ysgolion yn gwrthod derbyn disgyblion ag anawsterau ymddygiad hyd yn oed os ydynt yn byw yn y dalgylch. Pa mor gyffredin yw digwyddiad fel hyn?

Nid oes gennym dystiolaeth bod hyn yn digwydd. Gwyddom am sefyllfaoedd ble mae Llywodraethwyr yn nodi na ddylid derbyn disgybl heb i'r gefnogaeth/ddarpariaeth angenrheidiol fod ar gael. Mae hyn er lles y disgybl ei hun, y rhai sy'n ei addysgu a disgyblion eraill.

- A yw ysgolion wedi rhoi rhagor o bwyslais ar bresenoldeb ers i hynny gael ei gynnwys yn y data bandio ysgolion?

Fel y nodwyd yn y dystiolaeth ysgrifenedig, mae yna obsesiwn bellach ar ddata. Mae ysgolion wedi canfod bod y newid lleiaf un yn eu canrannau presenoldeb yn gallu eu symud o un band i fand arall ac y mae hyn yn hollol rhwystredig a hwythau wedi ymdrechu i ddelio â'r mater, ond canfod ar ddiwedd y dydd bod rhai sefyllfaoedd y tu hwnt i'w rheolaeth.

- Ar hyn o bryd, mae Llywodraeth Cymru yn ymgynghori ynglŷn â chynigion ar gyfer cyflwyno hysbysiadau cosb benodedig er mwyn mynd i'r afael ag absenoldeb cyson o'r ysgol heb ganiatâd. Beth yw eich barn ynglŷn â hyn?

Mae UCAC wedi ymateb i'r ymgynghoriad yn ffurfiol. Rydym o'r farn mai cyfrifoldeb rhieni yw cael eu plant i'r ysgol a bod angen iddynt fod yn atebol am y cyfrifoldeb hwnnw. Fodd bynnag rydym yn rhagweld y byddai cynllun o'r fath yn rhoi mwy o waith a chyfrifoldebau ar ysgwyddau penaethiaid ac mai teuluoedd sydd mewn trafferthion ariannol yn barod fyddai'n debygol o dderbyn y fath gosbau. Ni fyddai felly yn cyflawni gwelliant arwyddocaol.

- Dywed Aelodau NAHT Cymru/ASCL fod y grant amddifadedd disgyblion a'r grant effeithiolrwydd ysgolion wedi bod yn arbennig o bwysig o ran cyfrannu at wella'r cyfraddau presenoldeb. A ddylid rhoi rhagor o gyfarwyddyd ynglŷn â sut i wario grantiau o'r fath er mwyn gwella presenoldeb ac ymddygiad?

Mae'r Undeb yn croesawu unrhyw adnoddau mae ysgol yn gallu eu derbyn i hyrwyddo gwell presenoldeb neu well ymddygiad cyn belled â bod hynny ddim yn arwain at waith gweinyddol a biwrocraidd swmpus. Ambell waith mae'r gofynion gweinyddol sy'n cyd-fynd â grantiau at ddibenion penodol yn gallu llesteirio ymdrechion i wneud y defnydd gorau o'r arian; rhaid sicrhau bod y gofynion hyn yn gymesur â'r symiau o arian dan sylw. Pryderwn ynghylch cynaliadwyedd tymor hir gwasanaethau neu gefnogaeth a ddarperir drwy grantiau; y perygl yw bod yr effaith yn un byrdymor a chamarweiniol.

- A yw'r oedi wrth roi argymhellion Adolygiad Cenedlaethol o Ymddygiad a Phresenoldeb 2008 ar waith wedi effeithio ar waith eich aelodau.

Ydy. Ar ben hyn mae'r rhagdybiaeth bod yna arweiniad/gofynion/canllawiau newydd neu ddiwygiedig 'ar eu ffordd' wedi llyffetheirio datblygiadau ar lefel sirol. Mae angen pennu amserlen dynn ar gyfer unrhyw newidiadau sydd i'w cyflwyno a sicrhau bod pawb yn ymwybodol ohonynt a'u goblygiadau.

- Beth y mae angen i Lywodraeth Cymru fwrw ymlaen ag ef fel blaenoriaeth er mwyn gwella presenoldeb ac ymddygiad disgyblion?

Fel a nodwyd yn y dystiolaeth ysgrifenedig:

- y prif flaenoriaeth o ran gwella presenoldeb ddylai fod sicrhau argaeledd gwasanaeth Swyddogion Lles Addysg digonol led-led Cymru. Mae ein aelodau yn tystio bod cefnogaeth o'r fath yn fodd o warantu ymyrraeth gynnar sy'n sicrhau nad yw patrwm o absenoldebau anawdurdodedig yn cael ei sefydlu. Mae hefyd yn hybu cydweithio rhwng asiantaethau ac yn sicrhau nad yw staff addysgu yn treulio gormod o'u hamser ar faterion sydd heb fod yn uniongyrchol ynghylch y dysgu a'r addysgu.*
 - y prif flaenoriaeth o ran yr ymddygiad yw gwneud datganiad diamwys na ddioddefir ymddygiad treisiol mewn ysgolion. Dylid ategu hyn efo hyfforddiant cynhwysfawr i'r staff mewn delio â'r nifer cynyddol o ddisgyblion sy'n cyrraedd ein hysgolion ac yn taro allan ar staff a chyd-ddisgyblion gan amharu'n ddirfawr ar ddiogelwch ac addysg yn yr ysgol.*
- Yn eich barn chi, a oes cysylltiad rhwng y bwyd sy'n cael ei fwyta/na chaiff ei fwyta ac ymddygiad, a beth y gall ysgolion ei wneud am hyn?

Mae digon o ymchwil ar gael sy'n ategu bod cysylltiad rhwng diet ac ymddygiad. Mae ysgolion yn gwneud llawer yn barod i hybu ymwybyddiaeth o bwysigrwydd diet iach, ond y cartref ac nid yr ysgol sy'n penderfynu beth yw natur y rhan fwyaf o'r bwyd mae disgybl yn fwyta. Mae gan ysgolion rôl mewn addysgu a hybu arfer dda (ee dim ond caniatáu byrbrydau a diodydd iach), ond mae gan gymdeithas ehangach yr un cyfrifoldeb hefyd.
