House of Lords

15 October 2019

Dear Charles

Thank you for your letter of 27 September informing the Constitutional and Legislative Affairs (CLA) Committee of your recent appointment as the Chair of the House of Lords European Union Committee.

I would like to welcome you to your new position and would be very happy to meet you during your time in Cardiff for the next Interparliamentary Forum on Brexit, or sooner should I be in Westminster before then.

As a Committee, we have been grateful for the both the engagement and the support we received from your predecessor, Lord Boswell, and we look forward to continuing this strong working relationship.

Yours sincerely

Mick Antoniw AM
