At holl Aelodau Seneddol Cymru

Annwyl Gyfaill

Bil Cymru – gwelliannau arfaethedig ar gyfer 5 Gorffennaf

Yn dilyn cyflwyno Bil Cymru yn gynharach y mis hwn, hoffwn dynnu eich sylw at y gwelliannau drafft a gyhoeddwyd gennyf heddiw sy'n ymwneud â'r cymalau a gaiff eu trafod ddydd Mawrth 5 Gorffennaf. Rwyf wedi ysgrifennu at yr Ysgrifennydd Gwladol a holl Aelodau Seneddol Cymru ac rwy'n gobeithio y bydd y gwelliannau hyn yn cael eu trafod fel y gallwn gydweithio i sicrhau setliad cyfansoddiadol sy'n ymarferol, yn glir ac yn darparu sail gadarn ar gyfer dyfodol y Cynulliad.

Yn dilyn y bleidlais i Adael yn Refferendwm yr UE yr wythnos diwethaf, mae'n hanfodol sicrhau bod gan Gymru fframwaith cyfansoddiadol cryf a bod hynt y Bil drwy'r Senedd yn parhau. Fy rôl i fel Llywydd yw cynrychioli buddiannau'r Cynulliad a sicrhau ei fod yn gweithio'n effeithio i bobl Cymru. Mae'n gam arloesol i'r Llywydd gyhoeddi gwelliannau. Rwy'n cymryd y cam hwnnw am fy mod eisiau bod yn agored ynghylch y gwelliannau i'r Bil sy'n bwysig i'r sefydliad. Mae'r gwelliannau wedi'u paratoi ar sail y dystiolaeth a gyflwynwyd wrth graffu ar y Bil drafft cyn y broses deddfu a chasgliadau Pwyllgor Materion Cyfansoddiadol a Deddfwriaethol blaenorol y Cynulliad, ac ar brofiad y sefydliad o weithio'n unol â'r setliad presennol. Rwy'n parhau i drafod y rhain ag Ysgrifennydd Gwladol Cymru ac rwy'n croesawu'r cynnydd a wnaed hyd yma.

Bwriedir i'r gwelliannau hyn adlewyrchu dwy egwyddor allweddol.

Mae'r cyntaf yn egwyddor gyfansoddiadol bwysig: dylai'r Cynulliad gydsynio i unrhyw newid a wneir i'w bwerau. Felly, ni ddylai'r trefniadau cydsyniad deddfwriaethol statudol rhwng y Cynulliad a'r Senedd fod yn gulach na chwmpas y confensiwn rhynglywodraethol sydd ar waith ar hyn o bryd. Yn yr un modd, dylai'r Cynulliad roi ei gydsyniad cyn datganoli'r pŵer i amrywio cyfradd y dreth incwm.

Croesewir gohebiaeth yn Gymraeg neu Saesneg / We welcome correspondence in Welsh or English

Yr ail egwyddor y mae'r gwelliannau'n rhoi sylw iddi yw y dylai'r Cynulliad, ar ôl 16 mlynedd o ddatganoli, gael y pŵer a'r hyblygrwydd i benderfynu ynghylch ei faterion mewnol ei hun. Ymdrinnir â'r egwyddor hon drwy welliannau i'r meysydd a ganlyn:

- Mae'r Bil yn datganoli pŵer i'r Cynulliad mewn perthynas â'i drefniadu etholiadol, ac mae hynny i'w groesawu, ond mae problemau i'w datrys o hyd. Mae'r gofyniad i'r Cynulliad gynnal ei gyfarfod cyntaf ac ethol Llywydd o fewn saith diwrnod yn arwain at drafferthion ymarferol ac nid yw'n rhoi'r un hyblygrwydd i'r Cynulliad â'r Alban, lle y ceir gofyniad i ethol Llywydd o fewn 14 diwrnod. Yn yr un modd, rwyf am i'r pwerau i amrywio dyddiadau etholiadau cyffredinol y Cynulliad, ac i bennu dyddiadau etholiadau eithriadol y Cynulliad, gael eu trosglwyddo i'r Llywydd, yn unol â'r drefn yn yr Alban. Ar hyn o bryd, byddai'r Bil yn trosglwyddo'r cyntaf o'r pwerau hyn i Weinidogion Cymru, ac yn gadael yr ail yn nwylo'r Ysgrifennydd Gwladol.
- Credaf, felly, y dylid diwygio'r Bil hefyd i gael gwared ar ragnodion newydd a diangen ynghylch y trefniadau gweithredu, a geir yn y darpariaethau sy'n gofyn am uwch-fwyafrif ac asesiadau o'r effaith ar gyfiawnder.
- Rwy'n falch o weld bod y Bil yn rhoi'r pŵer i'r Cynulliad reoli materion ariannol, materion atebolrwydd a materion archwilio ar gyfer cyrff yng Nghymru. Hoffwn i'r Bil gynnwys nifer fach o ddarpariaethau ychwanegol pwysig yn hyn o beth.

Mae'r dogfennau sydd wedi'u hatodi yn cynnwys disgrifiad manwl o'r newidiadau rwy'n eu hawgrymu, yn ogystal â'r gwelliannau drafft eu hunain.

Mae'r gwelliannau a gynigwyd gennyf yn mynd i'r afael â materion a gaiff eu trafod ar ddiwrnod cyntaf y broses graffu a gynhelir gan bwyllgor Tŷ'r Cyffredin (Rhan 1 o Fil Cymru, ac eithrio cymal 3 a'r atodlenni cysylltiedig) ar 5 Gorffennaf. Rwy'n gobeithio gwneud awgrymiadau pellach ynglŷn â'r materion sydd i'w trafod ar ail ddiwrnod cyfnod pwyllgor Tŷ'r Cyffredin ar 11 Gorffennaf. Rwyf wedi ysgrifennu at yr Ysgrifennydd Gwladol hefyd er mwyn nodi fy safbwyntiau cychwynnol ar Fil Cymru yn fwy cyffredinol gan gynnwys y model cadw pwerau.

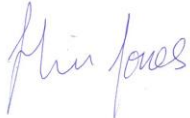

[\[Llythyr 21 Mehefin\]](#)

Rwy'n gobeithio, felly, y bydd y gwelliannau hyn yn helpu i lywio ac i gefnogi gwaith craffu cynnar a chadarn ar y Bil yn Senedd y DU ac yma yn y Cynuliad, a hynny o dan arweiniad y Pwyllgor Materion Cyfansoddiadol a Deddfwriaethol newydd. Rwy'n edrych ymlaen at ddilyn y drafodaeth yr wythnos nesaf.

Byddwn yn fwy na pharod i drafod unrhyw agwedd gyda chi ac mae croeso i chi gysylltu â'm swyddfa.

Clause 1 - Permanence of the National Assembly for Wales and Welsh Government

Clause 1 amends the Government of Wales Act 2006 by inserting two new sections: 92A and 92B.

As drafted, the clauses referring to the permanence of the Assembly and Welsh Government will appear after Part 2 of Government of Wales Act 2006.

The purpose of the amendments are, first, to give the declaration of the permanence of the Assembly appropriate prominence in the Bill, by including it in section 1 of the Government of Wales Act 2006, instead of it being inserted in a new clause 92A of that Act.

Secondly, the amendments reflect the constitutional separation between the legislature – the National Assembly for Wales – and the executive – the Welsh Government, by dealing with them in separate, new, provisions to be inserted into the Government of Wales Act 2006; and by inserting those provisions into different parts of the 2006 Act – the Parts dealing, respectively, with the Assembly and the Government.

In this sense, it reverts to the approach adopted in the Draft Wales Bill published in October 2015.

Text of the clause as amended

1 Permanence of the National Assembly for Wales and Welsh Government

- (1) In section 1 of the Government of Wales Act 2006 (“the Assembly”), after ~~Part 2~~ subsection (1) (the Welsh Government) insert—

Explanatory statement –

Clause 2 - Convention about Parliament legislating on devolved matters

Circumstances in which the Assembly's consent is not required

█ This clause as written will not achieve a robust statutory basis for the legislative consent convention. Clause 2 contains a provision that Parliament will not “normally” legislate with regard to devolved matters without the consent of the Assembly. The use of the word “normally” is unsatisfactory as it is potentially open to a broad interpretation.

█ The proposed amendments provide that Parliament should only legislate on the Assembly's behalf without its consent in exceptional circumstances and those circumstances are specified. The word “normally” is deleted because it is unclear – there is no definition of what is a “normal” situation.

█ The UK Parliament should only legislate on devolved matters when: (a) there is an imminent risk of serious harm to national security, public safety, the health of the public, plants and animals and economic stability in the UK, (b) the UK Parliament legislation specifically addresses the risk, (c) the imminence of the risk in relation to Wales means that it is not practical to seek consent, and (d) the Assembly has not already introduced legislation to specifically address the risk.

█ Combined, these amendments provide greater clarity as to when the UK Parliament should seek consent from the Assembly, by establishing a proper statutory recognition of how consent should work. They also recognise the maturity of the Assembly as a legislature and that its consent should be obtained before UK Parliament legislates on devolved matters.

█ Finally, it is worth noting that there is no attempt to interfere with Parliamentary sovereignty here, as section 107(5) of the Government of Wales Act 2006 makes clear.

Provisions which require consent

█ Secondly, in relation to the scope of the clause, the purpose of this amendment is to provide that the statutory expression of the convention applies at least as broadly to Wales as is currently the case in Scotland's Standing Orders.¹

█ The clause as currently drafted deals only with the UK Parliament's ability to legislate on matters within devolved competence. It should also deal with the situation where a UK Bill seeks to amend that competence.

█ The amendments also reflect the conclusions of the previous Assembly's Constitutional and Legislative Affairs Committee,² that consent should go beyond the current Scottish convention, so as to require Assembly consent for UK Bills which alter the functions of the Assembly, without altering its legislative competence.

Devolved matters are therefore defined to include matters that:

- (a) are within the legislative competence of the Assembly,
- (b) modify the legislative competence of the Assembly,
- (c) modify functions of the Assembly, and
- (d) modify functions of members of the Welsh Government (mainly the Welsh Ministers) where such functions are within devolved areas.

Text of the clause as amended

2 Convention about Parliament legislating on devolved matters

In section 107 of the Government of Wales Act 2006 (Acts of the National Assembly for Wales), after subsection (5) insert—

“(6) But it is recognised that the Parliament of the United Kingdom will not normally legislate with regard to devolved matters without the consent of the Assembly unless all of the following conditions apply—

(a) there is an imminent risk of serious adverse impact on—

(i) the national security of the United Kingdom, or

(ii) public safety, public, animal or plant health or economic stability in any part of the United Kingdom,

(b) the legislation specifically addresses that risk,

(c) the imminence of the risk in relation to Wales makes it impractical to seek the consent of the Assembly,

(d) no Bill has been passed under section 110(1)(a) specifically to address the risk, and

(e) no subordinate legislation specifically to address the risk has been laid before the Assembly and has come into force.”

(7) In this section, “devolved matters” means matters that—

(a) are within the legislative competence of the Assembly;

(b) modify the legislative competence of the Assembly;

² National Assembly for Wales, Constitutional and Legislative Affairs Committee, Report on the Legislative Consent Memorandum, Wales Bill, June 2014

(c) modify a function of the Assembly;

(d) modify any functions of any member of the Welsh Government exercisable within devolved competence (and “within devolved competence” is to be read in accordance with section 58A).”

Text of amendments and explanatory statements

Amendment 1

Clause 2, page 2, line 12, leave out “normally”.

Explanatory statement

This amendment removes the word “normally”.

Amendment 2

Clause 2, Page 2, line 13, after “Assembly” insert –

“unless all of the following conditions apply—

(a) there is an imminent risk of serious adverse impact on—

(i) the national security of the United Kingdom, or

(ii) public safety, public, animal or plant health or economic stability in any part of the United Kingdom,

(b) the legislation specifically addresses that risk,

(c) the imminence of the risk in relation to Wales makes it impractical to seek the consent of the Assembly,

(d) no Bill has been passed under section 110(1)(a) specifically to address the risk, and

(e) no subordinate legislation specifically to address the risk has been laid before the Assembly and has come into force.”

Explanatory statement –

The amendment specifies the circumstances in which Parliament can legislate on devolved matters on behalf of the National Assembly for Wales without its consent.

Amendment 3

Clause 2, Page 2, line 13, at end add –

“(7) In this section, “devolved matters” means matters that—

(a) are within the legislative competence of the Assembly;

(b) modify the legislative competence of the Assembly;

(c) modify a function of the Assembly;

(d) modify a function of a member of the Welsh Government exercisable within devolved competence (and “within devolved competence” is to be read in accordance with section 58A).”

Explanatory statement

The amendment defines devolved matters for the purposes of Clause 2.

Clause 4 – Wales Public Authorities (Schedule 4)

■ The Bill includes a list of “Wales public authorities”, in relation to which the Assembly will have competence to legislate, without the need for UK Government consent.

There are two Wales public authorities which do not fall neatly under the definition: “The National Assembly for Wales Commissioner for Standards” and “The National Assembly for Wales Remuneration Board”.

The proposed amendments to Schedule 4 would add those bodies to the list.

Text of proposed amendments and explanatory notes

Amendment 1

Schedule 4, page 94, at the appropriate place, insert -

“National Assembly for Wales Commissioner for Standards.”

Explanatory notes

The amendment adds the National Assembly for Wales Commissioner for Standards to the list of Wales public authorities.

Amendment 2

Schedule 4, page 94, at the appropriate place, insert –

“National Assembly for Wales Remuneration Board.”

Explanatory notes

The amendment adds the National Assembly for Wales Remuneration Board to the list of Wales public authorities.

Clause 6 - Timing of elections

The Bill transfers powers to vary the date of an ordinary general election from the Secretary of State to Welsh Ministers. The Bill makes no change in relation to the Secretary of State’s power to set the date for an Assembly extraordinary general election.

■ The intention of the proposed amendments is, first, to transfer certain powers over the timing of Assembly elections to the Presiding Officer, and mirrors the provisions in the Scotland Act 1998. The timing of ordinary Assembly general elections is fixed as the first Thursday in May every 5 years (section 3(1) of the Government of Wales Act 2006). The proposal is to give the Presiding Officer the power:

- to vary the date of Assembly ordinary general elections, and
- to set the date for an Assembly extraordinary general election

■ The amendments also propose to change the deadline for the Assembly to meet for the first time, after a general election, to fourteen days, rather than seven days as at present.

■ A further seven days would allow more discussions to take place between political parties about early Assembly business such as the choice of Presiding Officer, First Minister, etc. This is particularly useful where the election does not produce an overall majority for any of them, as can frequently happen under the Assembly's electoral system.

Text of Sections 4 and 5 of the Government of Wales Act 2006 as amended

4 Power to vary date of ordinary general election

(1) Subject to section 3(1A), the Presiding Officer may propose that the poll at an ordinary general election is to be held on a day which is neither—

- (b) the resolution of the Assembly is passed on a vote in which the number of Assembly members voting in favour of it is not less than two-thirds of the total number of Assembly seats.

(3) This subsection applies if any period during which the Assembly is required under section 47 to nominate an Assembly member for appointment as the First Minister ends without such a nomination being made.

(4) If the Presiding Officer proposes a day under subsection (1), Her Majesty may by proclamation under the [Welsh Seal]—

- (b) require the poll at the election to be held on the day proposed, and
- (c) require the Assembly to meet within the period of fourteen days beginning immediately after the day of the poll.

(5) If a poll is held under this section within the period of six months ending with the day on which the poll at the next ordinary general election would be held (disregarding section 4)), that ordinary general election is not to be held.

(6) But subsection (5) does not affect the year in which the subsequent ordinary general election is to be held.

(7) In calculating any period of days for the purposes of subsection (4)(c), the following days are to be disregarded-

- (a) Saturday and Sunday
- (b) Christmas Eve, Christmas Day and Good Friday

- (c) require the Assembly to meet within the period of fourteen days beginning immediately after the day of the poll.”

Explanatory statement

The amendment inserts provision for the arrangements for varying the date of an ordinary general election. The amendment also extends from seven to fourteen days the period within which the Assembly is required to meet following the day of a poll.

Amendment 3

Clause 6, page 7, line 2, at end insert -

“(7B) In subsection (4) for “An order under this section may” substitute “If the Presiding Officer makes a proposal under subsection (1), the Welsh Ministers may by order”.

Explanatory statement

The amendment replicates existing provisions in the Government of Wales Act 2006 with a modification resulting from the transfer of the power to vary the date of an ordinary general election to the Presiding Officer.

Amendment 4

Clause 6, page 7, line 6, at end insert –

“(10A) Section 5 of the Government of Wales Act 2006 (Extraordinary general elections) is amended as set out in paragraphs (a) to (d).

- (a) In subsection (1) for “Secretary of State” substitute “Presiding Officer”.
- (b) In subsection (4) for “Secretary of State” substitute “Presiding Officer”.
- (c) In subsection (4) for “Order in Council” substitute “proclamation under the Welsh Seal”.
- (d) In subsection (4) for “seven” substitute “fourteen”.

Explanatory statement –

The amendment inserts a new provision, transferring the power to propose the day of an extraordinary general election from the Secretary of State to the Presiding Officer. The amendment also extends from seven to fourteen days the period within which the Assembly is required to meet following the day of a poll.

Clause 8 - Super-majority requirement for certain legislation

█ Clause 8 provides that Assembly legislation dealing with certain protected subject-matters (i.e. name of the Assembly; who is entitled to vote at Assembly elections; the voting system at Assembly elections; the number of constituencies and regions; the number of Assembly Members) will require a super-majority of the Assembly (i.e. two thirds of the total number of Assembly seats).

█ Clause 8 requires the Presiding Officer to decide whether or not an Assembly Bill relates to a protected subject-matter, and to state that decision.

█ Clause 8 then makes the following provision with regard to that statement:

- It must be in both English and Welsh. Subject to that, the form of the statement and the manner it is made are to be dealt with under Assembly Standing Orders.
- Assembly Standing Orders may provide for the statement to be published (and if there is such a requirement to publish, the statement must be published in both English and Welsh).

■ This amendment removes those two provisions. Including them is at odds with much of the rest of the Bill which recognises the Assembly as a mature legislature and allows the Assembly to determine its own internal arrangements. Also, in practice, these are not necessary because:

- Any statement which the Presiding Officer is required to make by statute will always be published by the Assembly.
- English and Welsh are both official languages of the Assembly and both must be treated equally; see the statutory duty of equality set out in section 35 of the Government of Wales Act 2006, and the statutory Official Languages Scheme adopted by the National Assembly for Wales Commission.

Text of the clause as amended

8 Super-majority requirement for certain legislation

In the Government of Wales Act 2006, after section 111 insert—

“111A Bills with protected subject-matter: super-majority requirement

(1) For the purposes of this Part a provision of a Bill relates to a protected subject-matter if it would modify, or confer power to modify, any of the matters listed in subsection (2) (but not if the provision is incidental to or consequential on another provision of the Bill).

(2) The matters are—

- (a) the name of the Assembly,
- (b) the persons entitled to vote as electors at an election for membership of the Assembly,
- (c) the system by which members of the Assembly are returned,
- (d) the specification or number of constituencies, regions or any equivalent electoral area, and
- (e) the number of members to be returned for each constituency, region or equivalent electoral area.

(3) The Presiding Officer must, after the last time when a Bill may be amended but before the decision whether to pass or reject it—

- (a) decide whether or not, in the view of the Presiding Officer, any provision of the Bill relates to a protected subject-matter, and
- (b) state that decision.

(4) If the Presiding Officer decides that any provision of the Bill relates to a protected subject-matter, the Bill is not passed unless the number of Assembly members voting in favour of it at the final stage is at least two-thirds of the total number of Assembly seats.

~~(5) A statement under subsection (3)(b) must be made in both English and Welsh; but, subject to that, the form of the statement and the manner in which it is to be made are to be determined under the Standing Orders.~~

~~(6) The Standing Orders—~~

~~(a) may provide for a statement under subsection (3)(b) to be published, and~~

~~(b) if they do so, must provide for it to be published in both English and Welsh.”~~

Text of proposed amendment and explanatory statement

Clause 8, page 10, line 3, leave out subsections (5) and (6)

Explanatory statement

The amendment removes the requirements on the face of the Bill for the National Assembly for Wales' Standing Orders to include requirements for the publication of a statement in Welsh and English.

Clause 10 - Introduction of Bills: justice impact assessment

█ Clause 10 inserts a new Clause 110A in the Government of Wales Act 2006. Sub-clause 110A(1) will require the Assembly's Standing Orders to include provision requiring the Member in charge of an Assembly Bill to make a written statement about the impact of the Bill on the justice system. Sub clause 110A(2) says the Standing Orders can determine the form of the statement and the manner in which it is made. Sub clause 110A(3) requires the Assembly's Standing Orders to provide for such statements to be published.

█ The Assembly's Standing Orders already require the publication of an assessment of the costs of an Assembly Bill. The inclusion of a further requirement on this specific matter is unnecessary and runs contrary to the principle that that the Assembly should be able to determine its own affairs and procedures.

█ The proposed amendment removes Clause 110A.

Text of proposed amendment and explanatory notes

Page 11, line 38, leave out clause 10.

Explanatory notes

The amendment leaves out clause 10 in its entirety.

Clause 12 Financial control, accounts and audit

Clause 12 inserts a new section 130A into the Government of Wales Act 2006 replacing previous arrangements for financial controls and provides that Welsh legislation should make provision for the matters contained within that section. The new section in the Government of Wales Act 2006 should include basic safeguards, in the form of minimum requirements which Welsh legislation should provide for which reflect good governance. Section 124 of the Government of Wales Act 2006 currently provides for authorisation by the Assembly. The amendment sets out that funds should only be issued from the Welsh Consolidated Fund in accordance with legislation or authorisation by the Assembly, and can only be utilised for the purposes for which they were authorised. This would reflect provision for Scotland (Section 65 of the Scotland Act 1998).

Amendments to Schedule 2 (new Schedule 7B to Government of Wales Act 2006) as it applies to clause 12

Schedule 2 paragraph 7 sets out the sections of the Government of Wales Act 2006 which the Assembly will have competence to modify. Paragraph 7(2)(d) specifically refers to those sections of Part 5 of the 2006 Act which are amendable without restriction.

As it stands this does not include the ability to amend sections 120(1) or 124(3) of the Government of Wales Act 2006 which provide for 'relevant persons' – otherwise known as 'direct funded bodies' – which receive funding directly from the Welsh Consolidated Fund i.e. Welsh Government, the Assembly Commission, the Auditor General and the Public Services Ombudsman for Wales.

The proposed amendment to Schedule 2 paragraph 7(2)(d) would allow the Assembly competence to add to, but not remove from, the list of 'relevant persons'. This would allow the Assembly to enable a body which is independent of Welsh Government to also be financially independent, where this is deemed appropriate. Any use of such competence to add to the ‘relevant persons’ would require an Act of the Assembly.

█ Schedule 2 paragraph 7(5) provides that the remaining provisions of Part 5 of the 2006 Act (i.e. those not specifically referred to in paragraph 7(2)(d) and section 159) are amendable where the amendment is incidental to or consequential on, a provision of an Act of the Assembly relating to budgetary procedures and the Secretary of State consents to the amendment. It is not clear why the consent of the Secretary of State should be required to an amendment which will have no impact beyond the Assembly’s financial procedures.

█ The proposed amendment to Schedule 2 paragraph 7(5) removes the requirement for Secretary of State consent.

█ Schedule 2 paragraph 5(6) allows for the conferral of functions of oversight of the Auditor General, or exercise of his functions, on an Assembly Committee (most likely Finance Committee). Such a Committee would be subject to the same restrictions on composition as are currently set for the Audit Committee (PAC) in section 30 of the Government of Wales Act 2006. This seems unnecessarily prescriptive, particularly given that the Wales Bill now allows the Assembly to determine the membership of its own committees and can modify section 30 (in its entirety) of the Government of Wales Act 2006.

█ Given the competence devolved over the composition of the audit committee, this prescription should be removed. If a safeguard is required then it would be more appropriate for this to be provided for in the Assembly’s Standing Orders than on the face of the Bill.

█ The proposed amendment removes the restriction on the composition of such a Committee and provide that this would be a matter for Standing Orders.

Amendment 5

Schedule 2, page 81, line 22, leave out from “taxes” to end of line 23.

Explanatory statement

The amendment removes the requirement for Secretary of State consent for the Assembly to amend the provisions of Part 5 of the 2006 Act which are not specifically referred to in paragraph 7(2)(d) and section 159, where the amendment is incidental to, or consequential on, a provision of an Act of the Assembly relating to budgetary procedures.

Clause 15 - Change of name of the Assembly etc: translation of references

Clause 15 provides that if the Assembly changes its name then any reference in legislation, instruments and documents to the “National Assembly for Wales” is to be read as a reference to the new name. This saves having to change each reference to the “National Assembly for Wales” (of which there will be thousands).

Assembly Acts are prepared bilingually and references to the Assembly and Commission will be in Welsh and English. However, clause 15 does not address the issue of legislation, instruments and documents that refer to “Cynulliad Cenedlaethol Cymru”. The amendment clarifies that any references in legislation, instruments and documents to “Cynulliad Cenedlaethol Cymru” is also to be read as a reference to the new name, in Welsh.

The same issues arises with regard to any change in the name of the “National Assembly for Wales Commission” and “Acts of the National Assembly for Wales”; they are also addressed in the amendment.

Further, the heading to the section inserted in the Government of Wales Act 2006 by clause 15 is “translation of references”. The amendment changes the heading to “consequential provision”, which is more appropriate given the overall effect of clause 15 and avoids confusion between legal translation (i.e. consequential provisions) and linguistic translation of references.

Text of the clause as amended

15 Change of name of the Assembly etc: translation of references

(1) After section 150 of the Government of Wales Act 2006 insert—

“150A Change of name of the Assembly etc: consequential provision ~~translation of references~~”

Clause 16 - Welsh rates of income tax: removal of referendum requirement

■ The Bill provides for the transfer of income tax varying powers to the Assembly by order, without prior consultation with either Welsh Ministers or the Assembly. As a matter of principle, such a transfer should occur only with the Assembly's agreement.

■ The proposed amendment seeks to give the National Assembly for Wales an appropriate role in the commencement of its function of setting income tax rates for Welsh taxpayers.

■ Previously, the trigger for such a transfer would have been a referendum, signalling the consent of the Welsh people. Under the Wales Act 2014, this new function would subsequently come into force when the Treasury so decides. The Treasury order bringing the provisions into force would not be subject to any Parliamentary or Assembly procedure. This is normal for commencement orders but it appears inappropriate for the Assembly to have no control over when it acquires these important new functions, which are linked to other elements of the funding settlement for Wales.

■ The amendments would make the Treasury power conditional on Assembly consent. Consent would be given by way of resolution, rather than by way of a procedure for the scrutiny of subordinate legislation. A resolution procedure is more flexible and agile, and less of a departure from the normal position whereby commencement orders do not go through a scrutiny procedure.

■ Assembly consent is proposed only to the commencement of the main income-tax-related powers, contained in sections 8 and 9 of the Wales Act 2014. The Secretary of State will retain the power to bring into force provisions that would link the new income-tax rates with social security benefits, and the Treasury would retain unfettered power to bring into force certain subsidiary provisions concerning the definition of a Welsh taxpayer for the purposes of income tax. Both these sets of provisions would necessarily have to come into force at the same time, or after, main income-tax provisions for which Assembly consent would be needed as a result of the amendments.

Text of the clause as amended

16 Welsh rates of income tax: removal of referendum requirement

(1) The Wales Act 2014 is amended as follows.

(2) Omit—

(a) section 12 and Schedule 1 (referendum about commencement of income tax provisions),

(b) in subsection (4)—

(i) for “referendum-related” substitute “income tax”;
