Hi all,

When the CLA Committee took evidence from the Minister for Housing and Regeneration on the RSL Bill on Monday 20 November, Nathan Gill AM asked how many of the RSL Boards have over 24 per cent of local authority appointees on their boards. In response officials suggested the number was 8 but that the information would be checked and confirmed. I can confirm that

Of the 11 LSVTs, 4 have already changed their rules leaving 7 with local authority nominated Board places in excess of 24%.

O blith yr 11 LSVT, mae 4 eisoes wedi newid eu rheolau sy'n gadael 7 â Byrddau â mwy na 24% o lefydd ar y Byrddau wedi'u henwebu gan awdurdodau lleol.

Thanks,

Nick
